

Broken world. Bright hope!

This broken world and lasting fruit

Romans 6:15–23

Introduction

1. We have a new master to observe
2. We have a new service to offer
3. We have a new incentive to please

Conclusion

Questions for discussion and reflection:

- Why might a person say that the offer of the Christian gospel is a recipe for people to multiply up their sinfulness. So why doesn't the Christian simply 'cut loose' and give themselves to sin?
- How does this passage encourage the person who feels 'trapped' in a way of living that they know God hates?

Next week: This broken world and the end of compliance,
Romans 7:1–6, William Taylor.