

The good life in a crooked world

The way forward

Ecclesiastes 11:7–12:14

Introduction

1. 11:7–12:7 Death in the city: Rejoice and remember your Creator

2. 12:8–14 Wisdom while we wait: Fear God and keep his commandments

Conclusion

Questions for discussion and reflection:

1. What might it look like to rejoice and remember your Creator in light of your death?
2. What part of the King's 'wisdom while you wait' surprised you/helped you the most?
3. How does Ecclesiastes help you appreciate King Jesus more?
4. What might it look like to pursue gain wisely in this life?